Look Sharp!

R*E*P*E*A*T Records to release You Flexi Thing Vol 4 featuring Gaffa Tape Sandy and Goldblume on very limited edition red flexi disc for Record Store day.

R*E*P*E*A*T Records is very proud to announce the next in its series of Flexi Things. Previous records have been favourites of Record Store Day Fanatics, introducing them to bouncing new bands at a bargain price. Featuring the likes of The Baby Seals and Deep City, they have also been admired by reviewers home and away, and played on national radio.

Volume 4 is entitled 'Look Sharp' and features stars of NME, Glasto, 6 Music and Bury St Edmunds Rock City (© John Peel / Washing Machine Club), Gaffa Tape Sandy, paired with cathartic Cambridge-based emotional band Goldblume: for fans of cynicism, ambivalence and that one Foo Fighters song about cows.

It will be released exclusively for Record Store Day on April 21st on Republican red flexi vinyl (with free download) and will be limited to 250 copies. It will be available from participating indie record stores, with remaining copies on sale on the R*E*P*E*A*T Bandcamp repeatfanzine.bandcamp.com and from the bands at gigs.

Track Listing

1. GAFFA TAPE SANDY : Smart Dressed Guy.

2. GOLDBLUME : Razor

"Giddily frantic, high-octane hyper rock 'n' roll" NME

"Excitable alt-rock from the dark heart of East Anglia" – Green Mind

"Exquisitely brash garage rock from Bury St Edmunds!" -Glastonbury Festival

"A talent for performance, dischord and the random factor" R*E*P*E*A*T fanzine

This is the first vinyl release for 'Smart Dressed Guy', described by Exploding Head Syndrome as a "mashup of styles and tempo, harmonies, melodies and the high energy guitar riffs that get your best friend knocked out."

"Razor" is an exclusive version of a track from Goldblume's forthcoming as yet untitled debut album, available in the autumn.
